ARRESTS MADE IN “FACEBOOK” BURGLARIES

The Hoover Police Department has arrested two subjects who were allegedly using Facebook to target their victims.

Jewelry, electronics (televisions, computers, games, cell phones), and firearms were taken in the burglaries.

The suspects would allegedly check the Facebook pages of people that they either knew, or were “friends of friends”. The information that the victims were out of town was posted on the front, or public, page of the Facebook account. This is the method used to target the victims. These burglaries occurred between July 12 and July 22, 2009.

The individuals listed below have been charged in these criminal acts following an extensive investigation by Detectives.
