Robbery Suspects Arrested

On Friday, March 27, 2009, at approximately 10:50pm, a female resident of the Grand at Galleria was robbed by three black male suspects. These suspects, who were driving a maroon 2007 Chrysler Sebring and armed with a shotgun, took money and property belonging to the victim. The victim was not injured.

The victim contacted the Hoover Police Department, and surrounding law enforcement agencies were notified of the robbery. Officers from the Vestavia Hills Police Department stopped a vehicle matching the description given by the victim on the on-ramp from US 31 to I-65 North. Hoover officers responded immediately to the scene of the vehicle stop. The occupants of the vehicle were placed under arrest and have been charged with the robbery.

The listed suspects have been charged with Robbery 1st Degree, and bond amounts have been issued in the amount of $500,000 for each individual.

Suspects:

Jonathan Moore, DOB 09/21/1989, of Homewood

Marcus Marquis Davis, DOB 09/27/1987, of Homewood

Nico Markeith Phillips, DOB 08/01/1990, of Homewood

On March 25, 2009, the Hoover Police issued the following email alert:

Possible robbery suspects and vehicle:

Be on the alert for a late model red or maroon 4 door, sports type car (possibly Toyota Camry, Nissan Maxima, Pontiac G6 type) occupied by 3 black males. The vehicle may have a broken taillight on the passenger's side. 1 black male is approximately 5'4" - 5'7" and weighs 135 -150 lbs., 2nd black male is 5'7" - 5'9" and weighs 150-165 lbs., 3rd black male is 5'10 - 6'0" and weighs 220 - 240 lbs. The suspects are believed to have robbed 1 individual in an apartment complex parking lot in Hoover and others in Birmingham, Homewood, and Vestavia Hills. The subjects usually wear black ski masks, black gloves, and have been armed with a shotgun or rifle. They appear to randomly drive around looking for people to follow home and rob as they exit their cars. They have committed these crimes between the hours of 9 pm and 2 am. If the vehicle or individuals are spotted call
